Church.

The little church at the end of the board walk at historic Rhea Springs was the scene Sunday night of one of the most interesting and inspiring patriotic services ever held in Rhea county. From the pulpit, where the speakers made their short talks praising the efforts and endeavors of the members of the church in this great world-wide war, there floated a service flag with twenty-five stars in commemoration of twenty-five young members of the church who are now fighting for democracy against Prussianism. The list of those now in the service is headed by George F. Neal now commander in the United States navy. Commander Neal is now ashore awaiting the building of a battleship, the one he was commander of having been destroyed. Commandant Neal was born at Rhea Springs and was the son of Hon. John R. Neal, who for many years represented that district in congress.

The meeting was opened at $ o'clock with a crowded house, the guests of the hotel attending and joining in the gervices. The services were opened with a prayer by the pastor. Almerica. Miss Margaret which the congregation led by the choir, sang "America." Miss Margaret which the congregation. The feature of the continue of little girls of the church. The services were concluded with a prayer by the pastor.

The meeting was called to order by W. P. Browless superintendent of the Sunday school, who read the list of those who had joined the colors. Mr. Browles then called on J. Z. Schultz, a banker from Stevenson, Ala., who has given one son to the colors and expects to give his three others. He stated he had give one gladly and chertuilly and would be as glad and willing to give the other three. The speaker praised the members of the church for the wory they had done and were doing to win the war. After Mr. Schultz's taik, J. B. F. Lowry, of Chattanooga, was called on, and in a ringing and enthusiastic talk, paid high tribute to the great work the farmer was doing in winning the war. "Without you we would meet defeat," said Mr. Lowry "for the sons of the soil are as much if not more benefactors in this war as the boys who are gallanty fighting and giving their all in the trenches of all war-clouded Europe."

Dr. E. B. Wise, of Chattanooga, was the next speaker, and Dr. Wise said that he, like Mr. Schultz, had given one son and wished that he had more to give, for he would rather his son would meet the supreme sacrifice than mon, Bristol; James H. Dr. Wise also paid tribute to the absent boys who were represented by the twenty-five stars on the service, flag and said that he hoped that none of the stars would ever turn to gold and every one of the boys would come back covered with honor and glory.

O. C. Wright, the elequent pastor of the church, closed the services with the most thrilling and beautiful talk of the evening in which he spoke of how.

PICKED UP FOR SLACKER:
VINDICATED AT CAMP
South Bend, Ind., Sept. 3:—Harry J.
Callahan, 36 years old, picked up here on a charge of evading the draft, returned today from Camp Zachary Taylor with an honorable discharge from Judge Advocate Jones. Callahan will get army pay for the month he was in camp and civilian wages of $30 per week for four weeks spent in jail per week for four weeks spent in jail here while awaiting induction.

Callahan was picked up at the instigation of a former employer whose service he left and asserts that his efforts to communicate with rela-tives in San Francisco availed noth-ing because local draft authorities paid no attention to information received from there. At camp, however, he was able to establish himself as no slacker. "I shall register on Sept. 12 and ask for immediate induction," said Callaban. "I'd have stayed in the army now only I don't care to enter it with the brand of slacker."

MAYS AND VAUGHN MAY TWIRL OPENING GAME

ALL SET FOR BIG SERIES WEDNESDAY.

'Submarine' May Prove Feature of Classic-No Tickets to Scalpers.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—The Chicago Nationals returned from Pittsburgh today and began preliminary practice for the opening game of the world's series here tomorrow with the Boston Red Sox, champions of the American league. Ideal baseball weather is predicted for the initial contest.

After a heart-to-heart talk with his men Manager Fred Mitchell ordered them to report at American league park in the afternoon for a practice session in which the Cubs will acquaint themselves with the lights and shadows of the grounds. Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans, present world champions, has invited Manager Ed Barrows to hold a practice session at the grounds on the arrival of the Red Sox, probably late today.

Jim Vaughn, the big southpaw, has been picked by Chicago sport writers as the probable choice of Manager Mitchell for the opening game, while the baseball rialte guesses that Boston's been picked by Chicago sport writers as the probable choice of Manager Mitchell for the opening game, while the baseball rialto guesses that Boston's righthander, Carl Mays, will start for the Red Sox, with Ruth as second choice, Mays' peculiar submarine delivery, the like of which the National league champions have not met, has led fandom to believe that he will start off baseball's carliest championship games.

Ticket reservations for the games which in price will be the cheapest on record, have been far better than was anticipated, according to Walter Graighead, secretary of the Chicago Nationals. Two thousand box seats for tomorrow's game at $3.30 cach, war tax included, were placed on sale today and other sales for the following games will be held.

Several downtown ticket brokers have announced that the cardboards would be available at their offices. Baseball men declare, however, that so far as they can learn no tickets have been sold to scalpers.

CUBS CONFIDENT BUT BETTING ON EVEN BASIS

No "Bread Line" This Year Though Prospects Are for Big Attendance.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—(I. N. S.)—The well-known eve of what probably will be the last world's series. Father Dearborh's sons will see until warring nations sheathe their swords, finds Chicago expectant today, but not noticeably disturbed. There is considerable general interest but there is none of the fever that has marked the approach to previous baseball classics.

Chicago is going into the series, however, with an abiding faith in Fred Mitchell and his Cubs. Followers of Mitchell's crew refuse to show a vestige of apprehension of concern over the forth-coming of the Red Sox invasion.

As a matter of precaution those who sometimes feel disposed to risk their yen on the outcome of a baseball game are withholding odds on the series. The betting here is even, neither the Sox or the Cubs ranking a favorite. There is, however, a preponderance of Chicago money, and anyone who shows a Red Sox "roll" in Chicago has no difficulty in finding someone who is willing to match his coin on an even basis. No record of large wagers has yet appeared.

There was a spirit of confidence evident among the new National league champs. Indications are today that Comiskey park, will be filled to capacity for all the games played here, but the "bread lines" that have waited all night before the gates for previous series probably will a lacking.
